imagine that ...

Every moment is perfect. Nothing is out of place. The bee, floating skilfully from flower to flower, focuses only on the next one. The bird focuses exactly on the twig where it's landing. Each next moment unfolds as it should. There is an exquisite balance about everything in Nature. You remain still and calm when moving in this stream. You, too, are in exquisite balance and don't need to consider the big picture of the greater environment. It is forming lawfully and will flow towards its own new balance ...

Move in exquisite balance

So we're moving in exquisite balance all the time, through contexts and situations, locales and environments ... into awareness of being empty in the nothingness!

It is quantum awareness of the fine particles, the waves that make up the energy field, The Tao, the source of all creation, moment to moment ... you are capable because you create.

Look NOT at the environment around you, no, look inward at your flowing source, your Tao within, your fountain of outpouring! You flow like water with continuous thoughts, images and imaginings ~ these creative energies emerge ~ your superpower of focus miraculous ~ it's all in the mind!

Present in the baby, the 'terrible two,' the five year old who enters primary education in a perfect, curious oneness ...

Then slowly the institutions of 'Man' perform a pre-frontal lobotomy and a labation of the corpus callosum, to literally divide and rule, to minimize your mind powers, to diminish your miraculous focus and inspiration.

Unless ye become as little children ... curious, questioning "why, why?" And ready with a "No!"

Create it in the flow, all is imaginary!

We move forward, creating in the flow ... but not conscious enough to know ~ it's all imaginary ~ how could we possibly know, beyond a few perceptions of visible light waves, what anything actually is? What real contact-- what real data do we have, when we don't even know if it is particles or waves of energy that we are perceiving?

Think about it. As you imagine a 'form.'

Albert Einstein, the famous physicist who fled from Nazi Germany to The United States in 1933, for political reasons, discovered that $e=mc^2$ in estimating the amount of energy released during an Atomic bomb explosion. He was Professor of Theoretical Physics at Princeton University. Einstein said that he wasn't smarter or more intelligent than anyone else, but that he merely "spent more time" focusing on a particular problem! Now I don't believe the I.Q. statement for a nanosecond, but the lesson about mental focus is extremely important for humanity. Don't rush. Don't flit over things too quickly! Give your brain reflection time ... just like these three dots imply ... time for the great biocomputer in your head to reflect, think and compute. I'd say that was the lesson being imparted to us by the great mathematician and physical scientist. Perhaps the greatest of all time. Known for his general theory of relativity, warping of the space-time continuum, and wave particle duality in quantum physics. He studied light, photons, quarks, and theoretical considerations about the speed of light. $e=mc^2$

Einstein kept up his brilliant mental focus, by saying, "I won't be distracted by that again!" whenever he was mentally distracted by something 'irrelevant' to his immediate task! Remember that.

Focus is literally everything! Focus on a Success mindset is our free mindset group that you are invited to join, right now so that your miraculous focus can find momentum! Get the rhythm right, find momentum in the flow... you're completely unstoppable!

Love your focus. It's the core central point of YOU the eternal observer. It's your 'God-consciousness,' your point of light, your creative intelligence. It's where you listen, smell, see, touch and taste ...

Focus is the point where "thoughts become things," and where a lightning-fast decision turns painful defense into a counter-attack!

Spring back into attack! You as creator manifest now *beyond your wildest dreams....*and you make it all happen from a clear mind with a laser-sharp focus!

Brain waves creative attunement by vibrational matching

When you're next on YouTube, you're in for a fabulously rewarding surprise. In fact, I have an idea that could make you happier. Start searching for "Simply Hypnotic," or "Green Red Productions," or "Good Vibes." Select 'alpha waves' or any tracks with 'binaural beats.' Listen with good quality stereo headphones, or a stereo headset. Sit very still, listen intently and give it at least 20 minutes. The effect takes time. It will gradually re-train your brain's vibrations into a higher state. You'll feel totally blissful, chilled, deeply relaxed. Your memory will gain a new clarity and quick access. Get this ~ your intelligence will become crystal clear and raise a few notches, unlocking your natural genius, disinhibiting your DNA. You will become quick to discard any stress, social pressures, and find yourself renewed, reinvigorated and reinvented. Skeptical? I challenge you NOW. Test it. Trial it. Prove it to yourself. It doesn't cost you a penny. It's your ticket to paradise. My occupation.
